

Upcoming Events

- Tuesday, March 21, 6-7:30PM - Dr. Hendricks at Harvard. One of the foremost American figurative painters working today, Barkley Hendricks has long been an inspiration for younger artists. For nearly 50 years, his images of friends, acquaintances, and subjects met on the street have enlivened and interrogated art historical genre, while rendering a moving portrait of cultural and historical milieus. Flooding portraiture with oft-overlooked subjects, Hendricks focuses our attention on the conversations and representations surrounding class and race, while delivering his characters with cool wit and style. Following his talk, Hendricks will be in conversation with Matt Saunders, assistant professor of Visual and Environmental Studies, and students from his painting class. Free admission. Harvard Art Museums, Menschel Hall, Lower Level.

- Wednesday, March 22, 6:30-8PM – Food and Fascinating Conversation: Women of Color and Media. How are women of color still underrepresented and misrepresented across various forms of popular media? How can we celebrate and make visible the brilliant work of women of color artists? Join us for a delicious dinner and discussion with an esteemed faculty member. Dinner at 6:30PM; formal discussion begins at 7PM. Women's Center Lounge, Canaday Basement.

- March 22, 24, 25, 29, 31 & April 1, 8:30PM – Lowell House Opera 2017: Ariadne auf Naxos. This spring Lowell House Opera brings Richard Strauss's comedic masterpiece to life. This contemporary staging simultaneously parodies and pays tribute to Harvard House culture, and bids a fond farewell to the Lowell House performance hall before it undergoes renovation. Tickets are available at: lowellhouseopera.com. Lowell House Dining Hall.

- Wednesday, March 22, 5PM – “Culture, Connection, and Citizenship in a Time of Change.” The Harvard Department of Music

Louis C. Elson Lecture features Yo-Yo Ma and members of the Silk Road Ensemble in a free lecture/presentation. No tickets are required; seating will be first-come, first-seated. Ma's most recent release, “Sing Me Home,” was recorded with the Silk Road Ensemble as the companion album to documentary film The Music of Strangers. The CD won a Grammy award for Best World Music Album. Paine Concert Hall.

- Thursday, March 23, 9PM-12AM – Tasty Tunez: Kate Diaz and Brandon Snyder. Come see Kate Diaz and Brandon Snyder perform at CQH! Enjoy free admission with HUID, complete with delicious pub fare. Cambridge Queen's Head.

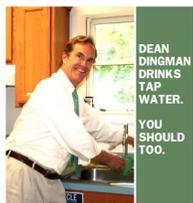

- Wednesday, March 22, 6PM – 20 Questions with Heather Cox Richardson on Shock Events and the Trump Presidency. The Mahindra Humanities Center presents Heather Cox Richardson, Professor of History, Boston College. Harvard questioners include: Steven Biel, Executive Director, Mahindra Humanities Center; Bart Bonikowski, Associate Professor of Sociology; Claudine Gay, Dean of Social Science; James Kloppenberg, Professor of American History; and Richard Tuck, Professor of Government. Moderated by Homi Bhabha, Director, Mahindra Humanities Center. Emerson Hall 210.

- Saturday, March 25, 1-3PM – Practical Theory for Filming Movement, Light, and Space. In a world where everyone has a film camera and movie theater in his or her pocket, how can we learn to better map our three-dimensional stories to a two-dimensional medium? Joe Turner Lin, filmmaker and founder of Outside The Frame, a New York-based production company, will introduce the language of film and the practical aspects of capturing movement. The class will begin with a discussion on the language of film. It will progress into more practical solutions and visualizations for articulating movement and space, and wrap up with Q&A. This class is free. Due to limited capacity, pre-registration is required: ofa.fas.harvard.edu. Farkas Hall, Studio 303, 12 Holyoke St.

Tap vs. Bottled Water

DEAN DINGMAN DRINKS TAP WATER. YOU SHOULD TOO.

Did you know that if you drink tap water over single-use bottled water, in one year you will save enough money to buy 280 Felipe's burritos or 10.6 Ec10 textbooks? That's why we're here. Your Green '20 reps want you to know that tap water at Harvard is safer and greener than bottled water, and it is completely free to you. Look out for the "Safe, Free, and Green" tap water campaign this week on social media and around campus, brought to you by Green '20! To learn more, please visit: green.harvard.edu/green20.

Class of 2020 Quilt Project

During spring break, students enjoyed pizza while decorating squares for the Class of 2020 "I Am Here" quilt to be unveiled at the ARTS FIRST festival in April.

Freshman Dean's Office

Morton Prince House
6 Prescott St.
Cambridge, MA 02138

Phone: 617-495-1574
Fax: 617-496-1624

E-mail: fdo@fas.harvard.edu
Hours: Mon. - Fri., 9AM-5PM

Submissions

Please send submissions by
Tuesday at 9:00AM to:
yardnews@fas.harvard.edu
Published Fridays.

Safety Notice

To contact an FDO representative in the event of a serious, non-academic emergency, please call your proctor, or the Harvard University Police at (617) 495-1212, or, on campus, 5-1212. Safety and other emergency messages are displayed as soon as possible on the News and Notices section of the College home page at college.harvard.edu.

Resources for Freshmen

Advising Corner. Advising Corner, an opportunity for you to consult with departmental advisers, takes place over lunch in Annenberg from 12-2PM on scheduled days. Speak with advisers at length, or ask quick questions on the fly. Next week: Romance Languages and Literatures on Monday, March 20; Economics on Wednesday, March 22; Anthropology on Thursday, March 23; and Philosophy on Friday, March 24.

BSC Workshop: Keeping Ourselves Accountable (rescheduled). Get started or work through difficult aspects of your academic work. Get to know fellow students and their experiences with accountability. Share, learn and try strategies, and discover what supports or hinders your accountability. To register, email Peter Kozel: pkozel@bsc.harvard.edu. Weekly meetings, beginning Tuesday, March 21, 5-7PM, Bureau of Study Counsel, 5 Linden St.

Freshman Fun

Monday, March 6, HUDS chef Anthony Caldwell taught a small group of first-year students how to make spring rolls and honey gingered chicken at Dean Dingman's house.

Wednesday, March 8, FYSC threw a bash in Annenberg to celebrate Housing Day Eve, complete with custom cupcakes topped with House shields and a photo booth.

Opportunities for Freshmen

Get a Free Boston Symphony Orchestra Ticket. The Office for the Arts is offering a limited number of free tickets to the BSO's Thursday, March 23, 8PM, concert of Berlioz, Pintscher, and Beethoven; François-Xavier Roth, conductor; Alisa Weilerstein, cello. Pick up at the front desk, Office for the Arts, 74 Mt. Auburn St. Open Monday-Friday, 9AM-5PM. First come, first served. Valid undergraduate Harvard ID required. Two tickets max.

Run the Yard! Grab your sneakers, and join the Harvard community for a University-wide, fun run. This free, untimed 5K includes three loops around historic Harvard Yard and the northern Law School campus. Harvard students, faculty, and staff, along with their friends and families, are welcome to participate. Registration, refreshments, and activities will be held on the Plaza. Friday, March 24: 7:25AM - check-in opens on the Plaza, adjacent to the Science Center; 7:45AM - Harvard Recreation leads warm-up exercises; 8AM - fun run begins; 8:30-9:30AM - Harvard Recreation leads cool-down exercises on the Plaza, along with light refreshments. Register for free at: commonsplaces.harvard.edu. We hope to see you there! Sponsored by Common Spaces, Harvard Recreation, the Office for Student Life, Harvard Center for Wellness, and the Office for Sustainability.

Fund Your Event with a Campus Culture Grant. The College Dean's Office is pleased to announce the pilot Campus Culture Grant. At this time, grants of up to $500 are available to support undergraduate programs and events promoting positive campus culture through reflection and activities that foster learning, well-being, and a sense of compassion. The deadline for the grant proposals is Monday, April 10. For a link to the application and any questions, please write to Claudine Cho: claudinecho@fas.harvard.edu.

Take the HealthPALS Wellness Challenge. The Wellness Challenge is a way for you to engage with many different parts of your health and wellness. Challenge yourself to try new things, experience new ways of being well, and get to know new people. If you come to at least 15 HealthPALS events over the course of the semester, you will be entered into a raffle to win our gold prize package; come to at least 12 events, and you'll be entered for the silver prize package; and if you come to just nine events, you will be entered to win the bronze package. Prizes include an Apple watch, yoga mat, sleep kit, one-hour massage, and more! Visit harvardhealthpals.com to get an updated list of events that count for the challenge. Questions about the Wellness Challenge can be directed to: harvardhealthpals@gmail.com.

Into the Hub

Into the Hub participants enjoyed an outing to see Panic! at the Disco on Saturday, March 4.

