Upcoming Events

- March 29-April 7 — The Gondoliers; or The King of Barataria. The Harvard-Radcliffe Gilbert and Sullivan Players’ Spring 2019 production follows two gondoliers, Marco and Giuseppe, who have believed they are brothers their entire lives. It comes as a shock to all when Don Alhambra, the Grand Inquisitor, reveals that one of them is the heir to the throne of Barataria, and was married in infancy to the beautiful Casilda. But which gondolier is the true heir? Further complicating matters, Casilda has fallen in love with the lowly drummer, Luiz. During the search for the identity of the King of Barataria, secrets are revealed that will change the course of our protagonists’ lives forever. For information on show times and $10 tickets, visit the Harvard Box Office. Agassiz Theater.

- Saturday, March 30, 5 & 8PM — Expressions Dance Company Presents: EXpelled. Harvard’s Expressions Dance Company (EDC) is a completely student-run company focusing on hip-hop dance. EDC is built on three guiding principles, which we strive to promote in all areas of the organization: creativity, confidence, and community. Please join EDC for our spring showcase, EXpelled! Tickets are available at the Harvard Box Office and are SEF-eligible. Lowell Lecture Hall.

- Sunday, March 31, 7-9PM — IDENTITIES Fashion Show 2019: Fantasy. IDENTITIES is Harvard University’s premiere student-run fashion show. Its mission is to promote student creativity and cultural diversity while redefining fashion as an intellectual and artistic pursuit. IDENTITIES presents the annual Leadership of the Arts Award to notable artists who have made a significant impact on the fashion community. Past recipients include Anna Sui, Vera Wang, Elie Tahari and more. The 2019 recipient is Coco Rocha. Tickets are available at the Harvard Box Office. Northwest Labs.

- Tuesday, April 2, 6PM — Living with White Sharks. The Cape Cod white shark population has increased in recent years in response to the dramatic increase in the seal population. Shark sightings — some close to popular swimming and surfing beaches — are becoming more frequent, and negative interactions between sharks and humans have become a real concern. Gregory Skomal, Program Manager and Senior Scientist, Massachusetts Division of Marine Fisheries, has studied and tracked white sharks in the Atlantic for more than 30 years. In this lecture, he will examine the behavior, ecology, natural history, and population dynamics of this species, and how scientific research can help sharks and humans coexist in the Cape Cod waters. Geological Lecture Hall, 24 Oxford St.

- Thursday, April 4, 8-10PM — Uncut: Terrace Martin. Among the most versatile musicians and producers of his generation, Terrace Martin has worked extensively with Snoop Dogg, Lalah Hathaway, and Herbie Hancock. Martin is grounded in hip-hop but learned to appreciate jazz through his father, a drummer. After playing keyboards for several years as a teenager, Martin picked up the saxophone and within a few years landed a gig with P. Diddy. Shortly thereafter, he began a long-term association with Snoop Dogg and gained a college scholarship via Jay Leno after The Tonight Show Band’s Kevin Eubanks heard his playing. As a producer, Martin has worked for 213, Shawnna, and others, landing a track with Warren G and a production credit on Snoop Dogg’s Neva Have 2 Worry in 2008. The credits go on and on. Which is why we are bringing him to Harvard to talk with students about creativity, career arcs, the industry, and his uncut take on the world of music. This event is free and open to the public. Lowell Lecture Hall.

Advising Fortnight

Advising Fortnight 2019. Advising Fortnight is an opportunity to learn more about concentrations by attending events, panels, departmental open houses, and advising sessions. Fortnight kicks off with a buffet dinner and Academic Fair in Annenberg on Monday, April 1, 5-7PM. You’ll have the chance to speak with advisers from each of the 50 concentrations, as well as the 10 unaffiliated secondary fields. For details and a full listing of events, visit: advising.college.harvard.edu/advising-fortnight.

Annenberg Updates

Thursday, March 28, Annenberg will be closed between lunch and dinner to prepare for the HUDS Luau Festive Meal from 4:30-7:30PM.

Sunday, March 31, Annenberg will be closed for continental breakfast and brunch. First-year students may eat those meals in their assigned Houses.

Monday, April 1, Advising Fortnight kicks off with a special buffet dinner and Academic Fair in Annenberg, 5-7PM. Please note that Annenberg will be closed from 2:15-5PM that day in order to accommodate the event setup.

First-Year Experience Office

Morton Prince House
6 Prescott St.
Cambridge, MA 02138

Phone: 617-495-1574
Fax: 617-496-1624
Email: firstyear@fas.harvard.edu
Hours: Mon. - Fri., 9AM-5PM

Submissions

Please send submissions by Tuesday at 9:00AM to:
yardnews@fas.harvard.edu
Published Fridays.

Safety Notice

To contact an FYE representative in the event of a serious, non-academic emergency, please call your proctor, or the Harvard University Police at (617) 495-1212. Safety and other emergency messages are displayed on the Harvard Emergency web page: harvard.edu/emergency. Sign up for MessageMe to receive the most up-to-date emergency information: messageme.harvard.edu.

---

Opportunities for First-Years

Host Admitted Students during Visitas. Visitas is coming soon: April 27-29! Show incoming students what it’s like to be a first-year on campus. Sign up to host an admitted student and/or volunteer at: visitas.college.harvard.edu. The sign-up deadline is Monday, April 15.

Open Call for Musicians! Celebrity Series of Boston is producing Concert for One, a public art project that will create free music experiences for audience members in Boston and Cambridge.

Concert For One is about discovery, allowing oneself to be taken on a journey where music-making and active listening are the only goals. No phones, distractions, or expectations. This event is produced in cooperation with Office for the Arts at Harvard, Harvard University Common Spaces, and The Rose Kennedy Greenway. Applications for musicians due Friday, April 26. Find out more here: celebrityseries.submitable.com/submit.

Attend the Engaged Scholarship & Social Justice Undergraduate Research Conference. Since 2015, this conference led by the Phillips Brooks House Center for Public Service & Engaged Scholarship and Office of Diversity, Education & Support at Harvard College, in collaboration with the Undergraduate Office of Research and Fellowships, has welcomed undergraduate students from private and public institutions across the nation. With each year of this conference, we continue to be impressed with the rigor and depth of the research undertaken by undergraduate scholars throughout the country. This conference seeks to bring staff, faculty and undergraduates together to celebrate the engaged scholarship, and reflective learning that is taking place on our campuses. The conference will be held in the SOCH on April 4 & 5. To register and learn more, visit: publicservice.fas.harvard.edu/essj.

---

Resources for First-Years

Advising Corner. It is never too early to start learning more about concentrations. Stop by the table near the exit in Annenberg, 11:30-2PM, on designated days to ask questions and get advice on everything from course selection, research options, and post-college planning. Visit with these concentration advisors next week: Music – Tuesday, April 2; Undergraduate Research Advising/FAS Science Education – Wednesday, April 3. For more information on the concentrations, visit: advising.college.harvard.edu/concentrations.

EngagED. Come to EngagED, an informal mixer for Harvard College and HGSE students to talk about different ways to make a difference in education! Come learn from students in 15 different HGSE programs about this dynamic field. This event is co-sponsored by Harvard College’s Education Studies Secondary, the HGSE Office of Student Affairs, the Harvard Teacher Fellows program, and the Undergraduate Teacher Education Program. Please RSVP here: hgs.me/engagED. Wednesday, April 3, 5-6:30PM, Gutman Library, Conference Center 4, 6 Appian Way.

Compassionate Connections. Meet the College chaplains and learn about the diverse global traditions, beliefs, and practices they represent. Then join in an open discussion of ethical, spiritual, and religious diversity in student life at Harvard and beyond. Students of all and no faith traditions are warmly welcome and encouraged to attend! Sushi, including vegetarian options, will be served. Please RSVP via the link sent in your Class of 2022 Events List email. Thursday, April 4, 6-7PM, Student Oasis, Memorial Church.

Bureau of Study Counsel Workshops:

- Time Management. Identify your priorities, learn how to plan and manage your time more effectively, and develop strategies for dealing with challenges. Register at bsc.harvard.edu. Friday, April 5, 1-2:30PM, Smith Campus Center, The Isaacson Room, 2nd floor in Collaborative Commons.

- Getting Started Writing Papers. Find ways to get your papers started and done (on time); from an idea to a final draft. To register, email asanfeliz@bsc.harvard.edu. Friday, April 5, 1-2:30PM, BSC, 5 Linden St.

Journal Project Prompt #28: Have you encountered any situations or ideas in college which challenged the way you view the world? How did you manage that difference? Share your Journal Project inspirations on Instagram: instagram.com/harvardjournalproject.